

CBF Notes

From the CBF President's Desk

My sisters and brothers:

We are currently in the hurricane season and it is a known fact that the Caribbean region is vulnerable to natural disasters of this kind. I encourage all member bodies of the Caribbean Baptist Fellowship (CBF) to ensure that an appropriate mechanism is in place to respond to any eventuality occasioned by storms or hurricanes. In the same breath I implore all Baptists to stand ready to respond in solidarity and to be ready to offer relief to any territory which might require such intervention.

In November 2014, the CBF General Assembly will be convened in Guyana. I am aware that our Executive Secretary Treasurer has been keeping you abreast of the plans. My encouragement to you is to respond on a timely basis so that adequate arrangements can be made for this important gathering of Caribbean Baptists.

I am particularly enthused about the partnership being forged with the Baptists in Guyana for the convening of two nights of evangelistic meetings which will coincide with the CBF General Assembly. Let us all be in prayers for this venture. Remember to pray for the evangelist, altar counsellors, ushers, musicians and the salvation of souls among other things. I am satisfied that we are making progress as a Fellowship even though the pace needs to be accelerated. We need all hands on deck, however, for this to happen. I urge you to play your part as together we bear witness to the presence of God's kingdom in these parts.

From the CBF Executive Secretary Treasurer's Desk

My fellow Baptists, I remain grateful to you for this opportunity to serve the kingdom of God through the Caribbean Baptist Fellowship (CBF) in this its 43rd year of existence. God remains faithful to us despite the challenges we continue to experience. Along our journey, we have benefitted from the hard work and sacrifices of many Caribbean Baptists too numerous to mention; but permit me to mention the late Rev. Azariah McKenzie, the late Rubye Gayle, the Reverends Peter Pinder, Arthur Edgar, Vincent Wood, and Mrs. Edna McKoy among others. Today, we are privileged to be building on the foundation set by these stalwarts.

We express thanks to Faith Clemmings for her short but productive stint as a part-time administrative assistant in the CBF office. In the same breath, we welcome Miss Santana Morris as fulltime administrator, after being promoted to this position effective August 2014 following a short period as a part-time administrative assistant. We are grateful to our new administrator for the work she has done to resuscitate the CBF website.

The "Friends of CBF" membership category has been implemented. So far, ten persons have signed up. I encourage others to come on board.

Plans are progressing satisfactorily for the CBF General Assembly planned for Princess Guyana International Hotel in Georgetown, Guyana from November 5-9, 2014. At the Assembly, new officers for the next five years will be elected, the constitution will be reviewed, reports will be received from departments and committees and a number of proposals ratified. The opening celebration will be on the night of November 5 at the Guyana Cultural Centre with Rev. Ken Cadet as the guest speaker.

A major feature will be a joint effort with the Baptists of Guyana in the holding of two nights of evangelistic meetings at the Guyana Cultural Centre with evangelist, Franklin Small, from Jamaica.

There will be two major presentations. One will be given by the Rev. Eron Henry on maximizing the use of technology in advancing the mission and the other by Dr. Rev. Jules Cassius from Haiti on crime and violence - the response of the church. I would like to urge Baptists in the Caribbean and the diaspora to register now and be a part of what, from all indications, will be a memorable Assembly.

The month of July was a busy one for our women's and youth departments as they gathered in Jamaica and Dominica, respectively, for their conference and festival. We say thanks to Sharlene Cartwright of the Turks and Caicos Islands for her service to the CBF Youth Department as president. In the same breath, we welcome Jody Guerero-McKenna, from Trinidad and Tobago, to the presidency of the CBF Youth Department.

Let us continue to unite as Baptists in order to bear authentic witness to the presence of the kingdom of God in our region.

Shalom!

Everton Jackson

CARIBBEAN BAPTIST YOUTH FESTIVAL... Joy-Ann Wood

In the night, the conferees were made aware by Founder of Samaritan's Feet, Mr. Emmanuel "Manny" Ohonme, that their past does not determine or dictate their future; they can choose their decisions but they cannot choose their consequences... "DREAM BIG".

Friday was another full day of activities, starting with a Bible Study from host pastor, the Rev. David Serrant. He alerted the youth, that the devil has come to steal, kill and destroy and encouraged them to bring honour and glory to Jesus Christ.

The morning continued with a panel discussion promoting sexual purity with the title, "No Ring, No Ting...". Participants were encouraged to ask questions freely of the diverse panel on this sensitive, yet exciting, topic which the church must adequately address.

Thereafter, five workshops were offered with topics such as, 'eat your food' which dealt with prayer & personal devotions for spiritual development, 'spreading the fire with evangelism', 'dance ministry', 'success in ministry' and 'choosing careers'.

Later in the day, persons were encouraged to continue with the various mission trips of Samaritan's Feet or to visit children's homes and the children's hospital. In the evening, they experienced a diverse array of culture from the different territories including: song, dance, drama and food.

On Saturday morning, the Baptist World Alliance (BWA) Youth Director, Rev. Emmett Dunn, expressed the consequences of non-engagement, comparing the church and the Bible's outlook of poverty with how we can be advocates in today's society for change in this vulnerable area of ministry. They were encouraged to step out of their comfort zone and get engaged, being less concerned with "doing" but to ask themselves "what is it that Jesus is asking me to 'BE'?"

The 10th Caribbean Baptist Fellowship Youth Festival was held in Roseau, Dominica, from July 23-27, 2014 under the theme: 'Youth on Fire-Fully Ignited, Radically Engaged'. The opening night started off with a grand atmosphere of joyous praise and worship from the Dominican hosts, in which youth were consumed by the fire which was ignited. The President, Sis Sharlene Cartwright of The Turks & Cacios Islands gave a warm welcome to the Festival. This was followed by their opening challenge by guest speaker, Rev. Diana Francis of The Bahamas, who encouraged us to take stock of our spiritual inventory, reminding us with surety, that we can always return to the source to replenish what we need when it runs out but also resolving to sever ties with persons who may seek to drain their spiritual development.

On Thursday morning, there was a shift to the regular agendas of the Youth Festivals, as none of the previous Festivals included the element of 'missions'. Later in the afternoon, participants went out in numbers, to assist the children of Dominica, with the group from Samaritan's Feet and Samford University, USA.

One participant stated that this mission demonstrated to him that there are many ways to save souls for the kingdom of God and they truly are a representation of the love of Jesus. The secretary of the Youth Department, Joy-Ann Wood, stated, "We were challenged to share the love of Jesus as we washed the feet of the children and, thereafter, present them with the delight of a new pair of shoes."

In the evening the participants gathered as one body of youth on fire as they marched through the streets of Roseau and worshipped together at Harlem Plaza with Dominican gospel artistes Mr. Excellence, GodSent and others. Another awesome worship experience!

The closing ceremony on Sunday ended on a fiery note as that of the opening ceremony. This time, Rev. Randy Rodney of Trinity Baptist Church of Dominica blazed the stage as he challenged the youth using John 12:24.

He emphasized that, ".....unless a seed dies it remains alone..." and "when the seed dies the radical comes out...this radical thing comes from inside of you..."

He further highlighted the need for a radical change on the inside, a change we must make before we get engaged! The 'radical' can remove the 'mess' many of us encounter in our daily lives, the things we sometimes do not wish people to know; but most seeds grow best in the dark.

However, once one gets radically engaged one WILL bring forth fruit. The closing question was: "Is your soul, spirit and mind ignited?" "Everything on you return because nothing that dies, dies partially". Tears streamed from the eyes of youth during the altar call after this stirring sermon, as they committed and re-committed their lives to God, to be fully ignited and radically engaged on their return home.

Thereafter, the newly-elected president, Jody Guerero, of Trinidad & Tobago, concluded the Festival by empowering the youth as they departed to return home. ".....Right now, I speak life over every soul in here today in the name of Jesus. We need to speak life over ourselves, over our families, over each other and over our situations....My prayer is that you return to your territories fully ignited and radically engaged. I pray that you take that fire and consume your youth groups, consume your schools, your jobs, your homes. Take it to the next level and consume your communities because there may be persons who will never know about the love of God from anywhere else except from you. Hold onto the Word of God, the word which you received at this festival. Hold onto God himself when you feel discouraged. You have to declare like Jacob, "I won't let go until you bless my soul".

The conference ended in great jubilation as the band sounded the theme song, F.I.R.E., led by Calvin, one more time, as the auditorium was filled with smiles, whistles blowing, youth shouting, jumping, waving and repeating, "We say we on FIRE.....ain't no wata outing us!!"

This was indeed a spiritual experience in which youth from the Caribbean became Fully Ignited and Radically Engaged. See you, God willing, in 2017!

In three years, our 11th Caribbean Baptist Youth Festival will be celebrated in the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago under the leadership of the following persons as the 2014-2017 Executive:

- President: Jody Mckenna (Trinidad & Tobago)
- Vice President - Peter Panthier (Dominica)
- Secretary - Joy Ann Wood (Barbados)
- Treasurer - Cydnee McMillan (Trinidad and Tobago)
- Director of Evangelism - Gifford Marshall (Guyana)
- Director of Arts & Music - Calvin Deriviver (Dominica)
- North Western Directors: Derri-Ann Palmer (Jamaica) and Deno Cartwright (The Bahamas)
- South Western Directors: Nadia Mark (Grenada) and Valcia Johnson (Guadeloupe)

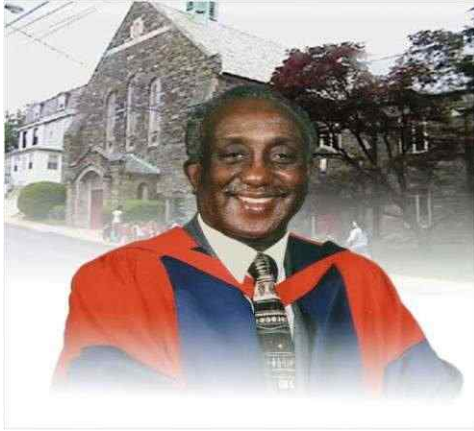

NEWLY-ELECTED YOUTH EXECUTIVES

FEATURE: CARIBBEAN BAPTIST PERSONALITY – HORACE RUSSEL

Horace Russell of Jamaica is a graduate of Calabar Theological College, Regent's Park College and University of Oxford. After completing his studies in the United Kingdom, Horace returned to Jamaica in 1958 and became the first fulltime Jamaica-born tutor at Calabar. He served as general secretary of the Student Christian Movement. During his stint as general secretary, he helped to establish branches in Haiti, The Bahamas, Trinidad & Tobago, and Barbados.

Russell played a leading role in the establishment of the United Theological College of the West Indies (UTCWI) in the mid-1960s, an inter-denominational theological seminary for Christian churches in the Caribbean formed from "antecedent colleges." In 1972, he was appointed the third president of UTCWI, the first person of African descent to serve in this capacity.

In 1976, Horace accepted a call as pastor for the historic East Queen Street Baptist Church in downtown Kingston, which shares origins of Baptist witness in Jamaica. He was instrumental in the establishment of the Edgewater, Waterford and Delacree Road Baptist Churches as well as the Benevolent Fund used to give aid to the needy and the J.A. Leo-Rhynie Scholarship Fund which offers assistance to needy students at tertiary institutions.

Horace served both church and state with distinction in a number of areas. These include, chairman of the Board of Governors of the Baptist-affiliated Calabar All Age School; vice president of the Jamaica Baptist Union; chairman of the Broadcast committee of JBU; member of BWA commissions including Baptist Heritage and Identity, Baptists Against Racism and member of the Academic and Theological Education Workgroup; member of Faith and Order Commission of the World

Council of Churches and chairman of Jamaica National Heritage Trust, among many others.

In 1990, Russell took up the positions of professor of historical theology and dean of chapel at Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary (now Palmer Theological Seminary) near Philadelphia in the United States. He also became interim and then senior pastor of Saints Memorial Baptist Church, near Philadelphia, for more than 20 years.

He holds professional status with the American Society of Church History and the American Baptist Historical Society and has had long association with the Society for the Study of Black Religion, the Marcus Garvey Foundation and the World Association for Christian Communication. Horace has held lectureships and consultancies with, among others, Cambridge University in England, Andover-Newton Theological Seminary in Massachusetts, Michigan State University and the National Council of Churches USA.

This notable Caribbean theologian, church historian, pastor, husband of Beryl Redman for more than 55 years, and father of three children - Elizabeth, Heather and Jonathan- can be described as a Caribbean pioneer and renaissance man decorated by the Government of Jamaica with the Commander of the Order of Distinction for his commitment to religion and public service.

The Caribbean Baptist Fellowship NOTES salutes the Rev. Dr. Horace Russell as the Caribbean Baptist personality for this issue.

FEATURE: MEMBER BODY – GUYANA BAPTIST CONVENTION

The Baptist Convention of Guyana (BCG) has been in existence since 1973. Its offices are located in Georgetown, the Capital City of Guyana. The Convention celebrated its 40th Anniversary from October 14-20, 2013, with a week of activities. The theme was "Faithful Service to a Faithful God as we build up the Local Church." Our emphasis for 2014 has been on Christian Education.

At present, the Convention is comprised of 23 established churches and 15 missions with approximately 3000 members. These churches and missions can be found in all 10 regions of Guyana from the Corentyne to Lethem.

The Mission of the BCG is to provide a collective organizational structure for Baptists; to devise and recommend measures for spiritual and numerical growth; and to develop mission programs so that churches may carry out the Great Commission of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Baptist Convention of Guyana provides ministries to men, women, youth and children through its Evangelistic, Christian Education, Pastoral Development and Camping programs.

The Convention has an annual Family Fun Day which is normally held in July. Several churches and missions host Vacation Bible School during the August holidays. Leadership retreats for the women and youth are normally held as well as men's conference in February. The Annual Assembly of the Convention is held in October of each year featuring programmes for men, women and youths. The Camping program consists of Women's Camp in April and Youth and Young Adult Camps during the August holidays.

The Convention enjoys working with other Baptists in the Caribbean and around the world; as such, is affiliated with the Caribbean Baptist Fellowship and the Baptist World Alliance.

2014 Caribbean Baptist Women's Union Conference

2014 Caribbean Baptist Women's Union (CBWU) Conference

The Caribbean Baptist Women's Union was started in the year 1980 on the island of Barbados, with a mission to promote a wider fellowship and increase spiritual growth among Caribbean Baptist Women. Since its inception, the Caribbean Baptist Women's Union (CBWU) has congregated annually for conferences. This year, the 34th Annual Conference was held in Montego Bay, Jamaica from July 16 – 21. Delegates represented nine countries: The Bahamas, Barbados, Grenada, Guadeloupe, Jamaica, San Andres, St Vincent & the Grenadines, Trinidad & Tobago, the Turks & Caicos Islands. One Hundred and Forty Four women were in attendance, with another ten visiting daily. The Executive Director and the President of Baptist World Alliance Women's Department, Miss Patsy Davis and Mrs. Raquel Contreras, respectively, were in attendance. Other distinguished guests included the Rev. Dr. Burchell Taylor, a Vice President of the Baptist World Alliance and Featured Speaker for the conference, Rev. Everton Jackson, Executive Secretary Treasurer of the Caribbean Baptist Fellowship and Mrs. Jacinth Wood, Vice President of the Caribbean Baptist Fellowship.

The theme of the conference was "In Step with the Spirit - Living in God's Favour" with reference Scriptures' Psalms 5:1-12; Luke 2:7-14; 1 Corinthians 15:3-10 and 1 Kings 10:1-9. The conference commenced with a warm welcoming ceremony by the host country Jamaica. The delegates were entertained with a variety of Jamaican cultural art forms such as drama, monologues, Folk Songs and Dance. These items were showcased by students of various Baptist educational institutions.

The Opening Ceremony was chaired by Miss Yvonne Pitter, President of Caribbean Baptist Women's Union. There was a roll call of the countries and each island represented walked with their countries flag while the anthems of the respective countries were sung.

The guest speaker, the Rev. Dr Burchell Taylor, delivered a powerful message based on Galatians 5:25 & 26. The delegates were challenged to imitate Paul's life as people who live by the Spirit, and walk by the Spirit. We were reminded that we ought to speak the truth in love, to be angry and not sin, never lose our dignity or self-respect even when angry. Rev. Dr. Taylor encouraged the delegates to remember that the Spirit is the promised living active, enabling, empowering, indwelling, enriching, power of God among us. He concluded that when you are marked with the Spirit then like Christ, meekness and strength of character will come forth.

At the business meeting, a decision was taken to have conferences of the Caribbean Baptist Women's Union biennially from 2014, instead of annually due to the current economic downturn experienced in many Caribbean islands. The nomination committee presented candidates for the 2015 – 2020 term of office. The officers who were elected are:

President: Miss Yvonne Pitter

Vice President: Mrs. Avra Bernard

Secretary: Mrs. Karlene Edwards-Warrick

Treasurer: Mrs. Marjorie Fletcher

Vice Presidents at Large: Mrs. Sabrina Pinder

Mrs. Sherrian Munroe

In keeping with the strategic operation plan to empower our women through training. Workshops were conducted on the Effects of Domestic Violence, Empowering Women with Unsaved Spouses, Embracing your Womanhood and Basic and Advanced Computer Training. The ladies thoroughly enjoyed these sessions and promised to share the information when they returned to their countries. A time of testimonies culminated the evening's proceedings.

2014 CARIBBEAN BAPTIST WOMEN'S UNION CONFERENCE cont'd...

The colour scheme of the Prayer Breakfast was aqua and the women of the Caribbean attended outfitted in the various ocean shades of aqua. Dr. Wilman Grandison officiated at the morning's proceedings. The guest speaker was President of the BWA Women's Department, Mrs. Racquel Contreras, who based her message on Luke 1:26-38. She told the women that nothing is impossible with God. Referring to Mary, the mother of Jesus, who was favoured by God, Sis. Contreras said that she was different and had a special relationship with God. Prayer for families, children, society, unemployment, and young people were lifted around the breakfast tables.

On Saturday, the women engaged in outreach to Garland Hall Home, Blossom Garden Children's Home and Lilliput. Street witnessing was also carried out in downtown Montego Bay.

A cultural explosion took place on Saturday evening with the ladies of the various islands presenting a bit of their culture at the Cultural Night Experience.

The delegates participated in Sunday morning worship at various Baptist churches. The conference concluded on Sunday evening with the closing ceremony. President Yvonne Pitter was the featured speaker and reminded the delegates that God's favour was upon the children of promise (Psalm 5:12), and that in order to live in God's favour we must position ourselves through prayer, faith, obedience and patience. The installation of the new officers was followed by prayer for the new executive. A torchlight procession was done across the conference hall, symbolizing that we are the light of the world and that we must continue to shine as we return to our various islands.

2014 BAPTIST WORLD ALLIANCE (BWA) ANNUAL GATHERING

CARIBBEAN BAPTISTS ATTENDED BWA ANNUAL GATHERING

Ten Caribbean Baptists, including the Baptist World Alliance (BWA) General Secretary Neville and his wife, Dulcie, as well as the BWA communications director Eron were among the Baptists participating in the BWA Annual Gathering held in Izmir in Turkey, from July 6-12, 2014. Rev. Everton Jackson, Executive Secretary/Treasurer (EST) of CBF reported to the General Council, highlighting among other things the acceptance of three member bodies from the Caribbean into the global family at the BWA Annual Gathering held in Jamaica in 2013. The EST called attention to the efforts of the Fellowship to establish a Baptist Historical centre and the implementation of a theological programme designed to equip pastors and church leaders.

CARIBBEAN DELEGATES

At the 2014 Gathering, Ngedla Paul Msiza of South Africa was elected by the BWA General Council, as the second African in the history of the BWA, as president elect to assume office at the 21st Baptist World Congress to be held in Durban, South Africa. Msiza will succeed John Upton of the United States. In addition, 12 vice presidents were elected by the Council. Among those elected were Anselm Warrick of Trinidad & Tobago and Jules Casseus of Haiti, to represent the Caribbean region.

Neville Callam was re-elected by the BWA General

Council to another five years in office as BWA General Secretary. Callam, a Jamaican, became the first person who is neither North American nor European to lead the global Baptist organization when he was elected in 2007 at the BWA General Council meeting in Accra, Ghana. His new term will run from 2015-2020.

An important feature of BWA annual gatherings is the presentation of the Denton and Janice Lotz Human Rights Award. The recipient of the award at the 2014 Annual Gathering was Ilie Coada, a Baptist pastor in Moldova who worked tirelessly against human trafficking and the sex trade in his country. Coada established the Bethania Christian Relief Association to manage and run his various projects, opened a shelter for vulnerable girls, many fresh out of orphanages, to reside and to continue their education. He also founded a community and children's centre that offers after-school and summer programmes, including tutoring, to more than 500 children.

The global Baptist family also celebrated the reception of four new members in Izmir. These were the Baptist Evangelical Community in Central Africa, formed in 2009 and comprising 40,000 members in 150 churches; the Emmanuel Baptist Church of Ethiopia, which has 20,000 members in 49 churches; Chin Baptist Churches USA with 8,500 members in 63 churches and the Irish Baptist Network which was granted associate membership status.

The BWA now has 231 full member organizations in 121 countries and territories.
